

The WI no-call list should be retained as presently in-force. As is, it is very effective in restraining tele-marketers from intruding on my right to privacy. Let the state decide how best to protect the rights of it's citizens not to be disturbed by annoying salespersons phone calls. Our list is not broke, so don't try to fix it. Thank you.